The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

TURIN, September 17.

AN Experiment has lately been made upon the Wines of this Country, and particularly thoſe of the County of Nice, in order to ſee if the carrying them by Sea would any ways alter the Quality; and it appearing that they are better for it, our Merchants propoſe ſending a Quantity of them yearly to England, and ſeem to think that this new Branch of Commerce will be very advantageous to them.

Hambourg, Oct. 1. We learn from Stockholm, that the Funeral Ceremony of the late King of Sweden, will be performed with great Solemnity, on the 6th of next Month; and that the Coronation of their preſent Majeſties is to be celebrated on the 15th, if the Preparations that are making for that Purpoſe, can be got ready by that Time.

Amſterdam, Sept. 21. The 29th Inſtant, a new Man of War of 80 Guns was launch'd in Preſence of the Empreſs. This Ship has been built by Mr. Sutherland, an Engliſhman, and is reckon'd ſo complete in all Points, that her Imperial Majeſty has made him a Preſent of a conſiderable Sum, and raiſed him from the Poſt of Major, to the Rank of Colonel.

Stockholm, Sept. 28. Yeſterday the Opening of the General Dyet of this Kingdom was proclaim'd by the Heralds, and at the ſame time the Regulation made in the laſt Dyet, concerning the Order to be obſerved in the preſent Aſſembly, was publiſhed, by one Article of which the Members are forbid to frequent Aſſemblies, or be preſent at Entertainments, as they are thereby liable to be engaged in Parties, or drawn into private Intereſts.

Madrid, Sept. 21. The 18th Inſtant arrived at Cadiz, the Oriente Regiſter, from Vera Cruz, with upwards of two Millions of Dollars in Money and Effects; and the Sobervio (another equally rich) is ſoon expected.

Paris-A-la-main, Oct. 8. During the few Days the King was at Crecy, from whence he returns this Day to Verſailles, there were ſeventeen Girls married, to whom the Marchioneſs de Pompadour gave Portions.

Bruſſels, Oct. 11. The Regency of this Government have named two Commiſſaries to take an exact Account of all the Eccleſiaſtical Revenues of this Province, in order to tax the preſent Poſſeſſors of them in Proportion to their Income, with a ſufficient Sum for erecting an Hoſpital for the Reception of the Poor.

Florence, Sept. 25. A great Number of Workmen employ'd in the Silk Manufactory having lately abſented themſelves, it has been found, upon ſtrict Enquiry, that they are gone into Portugal, to work at the Manufactory of the ſame kind, which his Portugueſe Majeſty is endeavouring to eſtabliſh there.

Leghorn, Sept 26. An Edict of the Emperor has been publiſhed, whereby his Imperial Majeſty, in order to promote Trade, grants conſiderable Privileges and Exemptions to Perſons who will build Houſes or Warehouſes in the new Suburbs on the Levant Side; and alſo to all Sailors and Fiſhermen, who are inclined to reſide there.

Genoa, Sept. 25. The late Advices from Corſica, leave the Parties as far from coming to an Accommodation with our Government; for we learn in Effect, that the Things are in a more critical Situation than ever in that Iſland, and that there is the higheſt Probability of the unhappy Inhabitants take up Arms again, in a very ſhort Time. In ſhort, we very much ſuſpect, that our pretended Mediators, inſtead of eſtabliſhing Tranquility, have, by their Inſinuations, heightened the Jealouſies of the Natives, and induced them to form new Pretenſions, altogether incompatible with the Sovereignty of the Republick; at leaſt the little Inclination they ſhew to a thorough Reconcilation with this State, gives us but too juſt Grounds to fear that they have ſtill a ſecret Intercourſe with certain Potentates, which becomes ſo much the more credible, from a Report that is ecchoed to us from every Quarter, viz. That there will be ſpeedily a mighty Change in the Affairs of Italy, but how it is to be brought about, we are to learn from Time, who they ſay teaches all Things; to which we add, except the Corſicans to be quiet.

Paris-A-la-main, Oct. 11. Letters from Genoa adviſe, that there has been a Fire in Corſica, which has deſtroyed a great Extent of Country. It is pretended, that ſome of the Articles of the new Regulation, made by the General Aſſembly at San Fiorenzo, are not very agreeable to the Republick, though they are looked upon as indiſpenſably neceſſary to reclaim the People.

It is ſaid, that M. Chauvelin has fixed a certain Time, in which, if the Deputies do not come to a Reſolution, the King will take ſuch Meaſures as he ſhall think proper.

The King, who returned from Crecy on Friday laſt, was taken with a Rheumatiſm in his Knees, to that Degree, that he could not walk, and was obliged to be carried in an Arm Chair from the Couch into his Apartment; but the Pain is ſince abated.

Naples, Sept. 23. The King is determined, if poſſible, to have the Men of War and Frigates, now actually upon the Stocks, launched early in the Spring, for which Purpoſe his Majeſty has given Orders that the Workmen be paid for working all extraordinary Hours.

Naples, Sept. 30. By Letters received here from Conſtantinople, by the Way of Venice, we learn, that the Plague ſtill rages there with great Violence, Numbers of the Inhabitants continuing to die every Day of that fatal Diſtemper; and that even thoſe who had retired into the Country, in hopes of eſcaping it, had found but little Security, the Diſtemper having ſpread almoſt 20 Leagues round the City.

Leghorn, Sept. 26. The Pope's Gallies, that were drove into this Port a few Days ago by contrary Winds, are put to Sea again, and ſail'd for the Iſland of Corſica, where they are to be joined by ſome Genoeſe armed Veſſels that are ordered to go with them on a Cruize againſt the Algerine Corſairs, who appear in great Numbers on the Coaſt of the Eccleſiaſtical State, and greatly interrupt the Commerce.

Madrid, Sept. 28. It is confirmed that a Convention is made between this Court and that of Vienna, for the Guaranty of their reſpective Dominions in Italy. An Expreſs is arrived at Turin with Diſpatches relative to the King of Sardinia's concurring in this Convention.

Rome, Oct. 2. The Father General of the Order of St. Dominick, had an Audience of the Pope laſt Thurſday, when he communicated to his Holineſs a Letter he had received from the Philippine Iſlands, adviſing that one of the Kings of the ſaid Iſland had abjured the Mahometan Religion, and embraced the Catholick; in which he had been inſtructed by the Miſſionaries of that Order in thoſe Parts. This Letter adds, that the above mentioned Prince had been baptiſed in the Iſland of Manilla, belonging to the King of Spain, and received the Name of Ferdinand.

Genoa, Oct. 2. An Expreſs that paſſed by here in his Way from Madrid to Parma and Naples, ſaid that 20 Tranſports are building at Barcelona, on board of which 1200 Vagabonds, that have been collected from different Provinces of Spain, are to be ſent to America: Theſe Ships are to be eſcorted by two Men of War.

LONDON.

Oct. 5. The States-General, it ſeems, are comprized in Quality of contracting Parties, in the Treaty which was ſigned at Dreſden, the 14th of laſt Month, and is to ſubſiſt ſix Years. The Subſidy is fixed at 48,000 l. Sterling, for which an auxiliary Body of Saxon Troops is to be at the Diſpoſal of the Maritime Powers, who are, moreover, to pay and maintain them, if they ſhould happen to ſtand in need of their Service.

By this Day's Holland Mail we have Advice, that a Courier from London had paſſed thro' the Hague, going to Dreſden, with his Britannick Majeſty's Ratification of the Treaty of Subſidy, lately concluded with the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony; and that the ſaid Courier was alſo charged with Diſpatches for the Courts of Peterſburgh, Vienna, and Munich, in order to inform thoſe Courts of the Ratification of the Treaty in Queſtion, and thereby give Weight to the Meaſures depending on the Concluſion of this Alliance.

Oct. 8. We hear that his Excellency the Duke de Mirepoix, the French Ambaſſador, intends to give Entertainments at the Opera Houſe in the Hay-Market, for three Days ſucceſſively, on Account of the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy, in the Middle of November next: The firſt Day the Royal Family is to be entertained, the next the Nobility, and the third Day the Gentry.

A very melancholy Misfortune has lately befel a young married Lady of a good Family in Wiltſhire: An Officer of the Army having been quartered in a Town near Bradford, the ſaid young lady, who was Daughter to one of the wealthieſt Clothiers in that County, fell in Love with him, and a Marriage was conſummated between them without the Privity or Conſent of her Father. The Officer, who it ſeems is a Gentleman alſo of a reputable Family, ſoon after ſold his Commiſſion for 1500 l. and having ſome other Income, he retired with his Lady into Hampſhire, waiting the Iſſue of the Event from the Lady's Father as to an Increaſe of his Fortune. It happened that the above Officer had imbibed ſome little Reſentment againſt his Wife on a trifling Affair of her ſtaying too long before ſhe came in to Dinner, which waited for her on the Table; and he reproving her for it in a manner ſomewhat too warm, ſhe ſo highly reſented his Rebuke, that ſhe immediately run up Stairs, and ſoon returned with a Glaſs of Liquid Laudanum in her Hand, and drank it off, in the Preſence of her Huſband, with the Words, viz. Duty and Obedience! and this ſhall end a Diſputes! and died ſoon after, tho' all the ſkilful Applications that could be thought of were uſed to preſerve her Life.

Oct. 10. Tueſday was held a Board of Lords of Trade and Plantations, at which were preſent all the Lords of the Board; when ſeveral Methods were agreed on for the Support of the Colony of Nova Scotia.

Laſt Tueſday 100500 Ells of German Linnen were entered at the Cuſtom Houſe from Hamburgh.

Laſt Monday 12,500 l. was paid into the Hands of the Treaſurer to her Royal Highneſs.

We hear a Propoſition will be made in a certain great Aſſembly, that every Revenue Board in the Kingdom may appoint its own Officers without Recommendation, and become thereby the more accountable for their Conduct, and more at Liberty to puniſh them when deficient in their Duty.

We learn from Vienna, that upon a very pathetic Remonſtrance from ſome of the Provinces in her Imperial Majeſty's hereditary Dominions, it has been reſolved to alter the preſent Method of quartering Horſes, and to form a new Plan, by which they may be diſtributed with greater Equality. Theſe Letters likewiſe ſay, that a Reſolution has been taken to fortify the Town of Koniginſgratz in Bohemia, on the Frontiers of Sileſia. Mr. Bohn, a celebrated Engineer, being conſulted about the Poſſibility of doing this in a Couple of Years, replied, with a conſtant ſupply of Men and Money it might certainly be done. It is conceived this Project will coſt ſome Millions.

The Kitchen Furniture is ordered to be getting ready, and the Cooks have had Orders to prepare every Thing for his Majeſty's viſiting his German Dominions next Spring.

The following Noblemen will take their Places in the Houſe of Peers, at the Meeting of the Parliament, viz. the Right Hon. the Marquis of Hartington, Maſter of the Horſe, now Lord Baron Cavendiſh, and his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, who is at Age, in the Room of his late Father.

The following Members of the Houſe of Commons will take their Seats, being choſe ſince the laſt Seſſion, viz. George Lord Cavendiſh, Brother to the Marquis of Hartington, Knight of the Shire for the County of Derby, in the Room of the Marquis appointed Maſter of the Horſe, and created Baron Cavendiſh. William Rowley, Eſq; for the Borough of Taunton, in Somerſetſhire. Edward Boſcawen, Eſq; for the Borough of Truro, in Cornwall. Edward Baynton Rolt, Eſq; for the Borough of Chippinham in Wilts. Richard Elliot, Eſq; for the Borough of St. Germains in Cornwall; and William Trevanion, Eſq; for the Borough of Tregony in the ſame County.

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, Sept. 27.

"The whole Town is in an Uproar, and every Hand lifted up againſt the Jews; the Occaſion of which, as I hear, is, that a Jew fired a Gun at a Prieſt, in whoſe Houſe two Jeweſſes had taken Refuge, in order to embrace the Roman Catholick Religion. Great Diſorders have already been committed, to prevent which, the Governor has drawn out all the Garriſon under Arms. This is all the Account I can give you at preſent, as the Poſt is going out; by the next I may relate the Sequel of this Affair.

Our Correſpondents at Paris inform us, that his Excellency the Earl of Albemarle being returned thither with freſh Inſtructions, it is believed that all Diſputes between the two Courts will be ſpeedily and amicably adjuſted.

WILLIAMSBURG, October 31.

A Letter from the Governor of South-Carolina adviſes, that the Cherokees, who were lately in Williamſburg, under the Character and Denomination of Ambaſſadors and Nobles, are People of no eminent Quality or Dignity, but obſcure Perſons; that they had committed many Cruelties and Injuries, to the Inhabitants of that Province, and were to have been delivered up by their Countrymen to be puniſhed; that it is falſe that they ever made Application to the Governor of Carolina, or had not been furniſhed with Goods, they having been abundantly ſupplied with every Thing by that Province for near forty Years: This Intelligence is therefore inſerted in the Gazette, that the Inhabitants of this Colony may be cautious in their Commerce with them.

ANNAPOLIS, December 18.

Monday Morning laſt, a very valuable Country-born Negroe Man, belonging to Mr. James Maccubbin, was found frozen and dead on the Road beyond South-River; and is ſuppoſed to have fallen down (being in Drink) and periſh'd.

December 25. Wedneſday laſt a Special Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Goal Delivery, was held at Joppa, in Baltimore County, for the Trial of the Perſons concerned in the Murder of Mrs. Clark, on the 20th of November paſt; when four were condemned, and one, a Boy, acquitted; Martha Baſſet (otherwiſe Catcham) pleaded Guilty; John Berry and Mary Powell, appeared, on Trial, to be harden'd reſolute Offenders, and pleaded Not Guilty, but the Jury found them Guilty; Edward Evans, appeared very penitent, and ſaid he ſhould never have been concerned in ſo horrid a Crime, if it had not been for the Threats and Menaces of Berry, who was then his Overſeer. They all received Sentence of Death, and we hear are ſoon to be executed.

Elizabeth Jenkins, charged with the Murder of her Baſtard Child, was acquitted.

Stephen Roſe, and Samuel Mitchelſon, tried for ſtealing ſundry Goods, were both found Guilty, and burnt in the Hand: The ſame Perſons tried a ſecond Time for Priſon breaking, were found Guilty, and a ſecond Time burnt in the Hand.

There were ſundry other Perſons to be tried, but as the Evidences againſt them did not appear, they were remanded back.

January 2. On Friday, the 10th Inſtant, John Berry, Martha Baſſet, and Mary Powell, are to be executed in Baltimore County, for the late cruel and barbarous Murder of Mrs. Clark, on the 20th of November laſt, as ſhe lay in her Bed aſleep. Edward Evans, who was condemn'd with them for the ſame Crime, has obtain'd a Pardon.

We have had, for ſome Days paſt, very cold Weather, with conſiderable Quantities of Snow: At preſent our Rivers are full of Ice, and we can have no Communication with the other Shore.

Jan. 9. The River Severn is now ſo hard froze that People walk acroſs upon it.

Jan. 16. Our Rivers have all Bridges of Ice, over which Horſes and Carriages paſs with Safety; and the Bay as low down as this Place, which is about eleven Miles wide, appears to be froze quite acroſs.

In the late very hard Weather, two Negroes near Elk-Ridge, being from their Maſter's Houſe in the Night, were froze to Death on their Return home.

Laſt Friday Martha Baſſet and Mary Powell were hanged at Joppa, purſuant to Sentence, for the Murder of Mrs. Clark. The Execution of John Berry, the wicked Contriver of this Scene of Villainy, was deferr'd 'til Yeſterday, when he was to be executed near the Place where the Murder was committed, and afterwards hung in Chains.

NEW-YORK, January 27.

We hear a Sloop is arrived at Rhode-Iſland from Holland, which Capt. King in his Paſſage from Nova-Scotia ſpoke with, and was informed of the ſafe Arrival of the Brig Young Daniel, Capt. Everſon of this Place, at Amſterdam: He ſaid he had ſundry Letters for New-York, but as the Poſt is not come in this Week, we muſt wait their Contents till the next.

Notwithſtanding our Rivers continue full of Ice, yet Veſſels have now and then an Opportunity to ſlip out, as Yeſterday ſen'night, and laſt Saturday, ſeveral Veſſels that were lying ready put off; tho' there are ſome more ſtill remaining, who are prevented by ſome Means or other; but it is now hoped the Check on our Navigation will be ſoon at an End, and the Rivers open'd.

On Saturday laſt, the January Term of the Supreme Court of this Province, ended here, at which Mary Clarke, a Woman of noted ill Fame, was tried, and convicted of Burglary, and ſtealing ſundry Goods and Cloaths out of the Houſe of a Gentleman in this City; ſome of which were found upon her when ſhe was apprehended, ſhe received Sentence of Death, to be executed on Friday, the 14th of February next.

By the Albany Poſt, we hear of ſeveral Accidents on Perſons croſſing the North River on the Ice: At Poukeepſie two Horſes in a Sleigh, were drown'd, about 10 Days ago, and another near Philipſe's Upper Mills; and on Tueſday laſt, a Sleigh with three or four Perſons in it, was obſerved to go on the River in order to croſs it, a little above Tappan; and on coming near the Middle on a full Drive, fell in, and were no more ſeen.

Philadelphia, January 29, 1752.

LAST night broke out of the goal of the county of Glouceſter, the two following priſoners, viz. one named Sylvanus Goſling, ſon of John Goſling, of Greenwich, in the county aforeſaid, by trade a blackſmith, has been uſed to tend a ſaw-mill, and can do moſt ſorts of plantation work, of a middle ſtature, and tawny complexion: Had on, and took with him, a new beaver hat, and an old one, linnen cap, dark coloured camblet coat and waiſtcoat, an old brown cloth coat, and an old bluiſh colour'd cloth waiſtcoat, check ſhirt, leather breeches, old light colour'd worſted ſtockings, new ſhoes, with a pair of ſquare metal buckles. The other named Morgan Rorke, an Iriſhman, of ſhort ſtature, ſpeaks tolerable good Engliſh, ſerved his time to plantation-buſineſs in Eaſt-Jerſey: Had on a half worn beaver hat, linnen cap, lightiſh colour'd homeſpun coat, about half worn, a homeſpun greeniſh colour'd Jacket, check ſhirt, old leather breeches, grey yarn ſtockings, double-ſoal'd ſhoes, with ſteel buckles. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid Priſoners, in any goal, ſo that they may be had again, ſhall have Three Pounds reward for each, and reaſonable charges, paid by ¶ JOHN MICKLE, Sheriff.

RUn away on the 31ſt of January laſt, from John De Nyce, living oppoſite the Baptiſt-meeting-houſe, an Engliſh ſervant man, named John Harvey, ſhort, but well ſet, walks ſtiff, pretty full faced, has a bold look: Had on when he went away a blue ratteen waiſtcoat, with ſlaſh ſleeves, and leather buttons, a brown under jacket, old trowſers, grey yarn ſtockings, old ſhoes, pretty good hat, and wears a cap or wig; has been uſed to the ſea, and may appear like, or paſs for, a ſailor, or may probably change his name, and endeavour to paſs for a labourer. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and ſecures him in any goal, ſo that his maſter may have him again, on giving notice thereof, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges, if brought home, paid by JOHN DE NYCE.

All maſters of veſſels are forbid to carry him off at their peril.

N. B. Said De Nyce hath a ſmith, baker, and diſtiller, whoſe times are to be diſpoſed of.

STrayed away from Jonathan Paſchall's, in Kingſeſs, Philadelphia county, laſt ſpring, a dark bay gelding, branded on the near ſhoulder thus W. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid horſe, ſo as the owner may have him again, ſhall have a reaſonable reward. ANTHONY WILKINSON.

TO be lett, for a term of ten years, from the firſt of March next enſuing, a plantation in the townſhip of Newtown, and county of Glouceſter, ſituate on Delaware river, and Cooper's Creek, where Iſaac Cooper lately dwelt, about a mile and a half from Philadelphia; conſiſting of about 80 acres of plowing land; 20 acres of drained meadow; 30 acres of good orchard, and half an acre of ſparrow-graſs; a good dwelling houſe; a well of good water, with a pump; a barn; ſtill-houſe, and ſtill, and a good ſtore-houſe, with a convenient cellar underneath; cyder-houſe, and utenſils for making of cyder; milk-houſe, and other out-houſes; the place is convenient for keeping a dairy, and the ſoil is good for the raiſing of vegetables for the Market: Any Perſon inclined to rent the ſame, may know the terms, by applying to Iſaac Cooper aforeſaid, at his dwelling, two Miles from ſaid place.

Alſo to be lett, for the term of ten years, a certain quantity of land, ſituate on Delaware river, about fourteen miles from Philadelphia, called Billens-port, in the townſhip of Greenwich, and county of Glouceſter; containing 100 acres or more, of tide-ſwamp, and marſh; now in the rough, well bank'd in and drain'd, with a piece of upland adjoining; the land is rich when clear'd, is ſuitable for the raiſing of Indian-corn, Hemp, Flax, &c. for mowing, or feeding of cattle. Any Perſon or Perſons inclining to take the ſame, to cauſe it to be put and left, at the expiration of ſaid term, in a good ſoard of graſs and mowing order (ſhall be for the rent) may apply to Iſaac Cooper aforeſaid, and be further informed. ¶

RUn away on the 24th of January laſt, from Douglaſs Cambell's collier, at Reading furnace, a ſervant man, named John Roberts, about 20 years of age, of a ſwarthy complexion, with black hair, has a large ſcar on his forehead, and ſpeaks good English. Had on when he went away, an old felt hat, old blue jacket, faced with brown cloth, old cloth breeches, white yarn ſtockings, ozenbrigs ſhirt, and middling good ſhoes. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant in any goal, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have Twenty Shillings, if taken within twenty miles of Reading, if forty miles, or farther diſtance, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by ¶ DOUGLASS CAMBELL.

BY virtue of his majeſty's writ of Venditioni Exponas, to the ſheriff of Philadelphia county directed, on Friday the 14th inſtant, at 3 a clock in the afternoon, at the houſe of Thomas Harper, at Darby ford, will be expoſed to ſale by publick vendue, 32 acres of land, ſituate in Cheltenham townſhip, beginning at a ſtake, two perches to the weſtward of Antigua-run, thence north 79 degrees weſt, by ſide of the road leading from Oxford to White-marſh 85 perches, tenths, to a white oak ſtump, thence north 42 degrees and 3 qr. weſt 52 perches to a ſtone in Abington townſhip line, thence by the ſaid line, 47 degrees and a half eaſt 79 perches, to a poſt in the ſame line, thence other land of Edward Collings, ſouth 42 degrees and 3 qr. weſt 52 perches to the place of beginning, late the property of Edward Collings, deceaſed, ſeized and taken in execution at the ſuit of Mary Martin, executrix of Edward Martin, deceaſed. ISAAC GRIFFITTS, ſheriff.

RUn away on the firſt inſtant, from Robert Barnes, living in Maryland, Philadelphia county, an Engliſh ſervant man, named Edward Walker, about 21 years of age, by trade a taylor, well-ſet, and ſwift faced: Had on when he went away, a good felt hat, and wig, a light colour'd kerſey jacket, made after the manner of a coat, with buttons at the hips, and bound all round the edges with cloth of a darker colour, a green jacket under it, without ſleeves, old cloth breeches, light blue ſtockings, and old ſhoes, tied with ſtrings. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo as his maſter may have him again, ſhall have FOUR POUNDS reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by ¶ ROBERT BARNES.

Philadelphia, February 4, 1752.

WHereas Hannah, the wife of Ralph Walker, of Philadelphia, mariner, hath run him conſiderably in debt, and otherwiſe miſbehav'd herſelf, theſe are to deſire all perſons not to truſt her on his account, for he will pay no debts of her contracting after the date hereof. ¶ RALPH WALKER.

Lancaſter, January 24, 1752.

RUn away laſt night from his bail, one Richard Phumpton, about 30 years of age, five feet eight inches high, an ill-looking fellow: Had on when he went away an old blue broadcloth jacket, double-breaſted white cloth jacket, black wig, old hat, fuſtian breeches, ſpotted yarn ſtockings, and old ſhoes, is much given to drinking and ſwearing, hath got a black eye, by fighting, a woolcomber by trade, and took a pair of combs with him. Whoever takes up ſaid run-away, and brings him to Lancaſter, ſecures him in any county goal, ſo that his bail may have him again, ſhall have Three Pounds reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by ¶ JOHN HART.

JUst publiſhed, POOR RICHARD's ALMANACK for the Year 1752. Containing, beſides the uſual Matters, a particular Account of the Changes the Year hath undergone in former Ages, with the Reaſons thereof; and alſo the late Act of Parliament for regulating the Commencement, and correcting the Calendar, printed at large.

ALSO,
The AMERICAN COUNTRY ALMANACK,
For the Year 1752. By THOMAS MOORE.

MR. DOVE, Engliſh Profeſſor at the Academy, finding his former houſe too little for the number of his boarders, has taken Rock-hall, which is ſituated in a wholſome air very near the Academy, and moſt commodiouſly adapted for the reception of young gentlemen at board, waſhing and lodging. The great advantages that children will receive from their living with a maſter, may eaſily appear from this conſideration; That as they will be always under his inſpection, he will have a better opportunity of diſcovering their different inclinations and humours, of forming their manners, and correcting their language and writing. Beſides which, care will be taken, to inſtruct them morning, noon and night, in ſeveral uſeful books, by way of recreation, which are not taught in the public ſchool.

Said Dove, if deſired, will at leiſure hours inſtruct any [illegible] in the Greek, Latin, or French Grammar, without [illegible]ence to their parents or friends.

An Account of the Anacondo, a monſtrous Species of Serpent in the Eaſt-Indies, and of the Manner of its ſeizing and managing its Prey.

In a LETTER from an Engliſh Gentleman to his Friend, many Years reſident there.

SIR,

I Have read, with great Pleaſure, the Accounts you have occaſionally given me of the more wonderful Sorts of Animals, and their Properties. Your late Account of the River Horſe, I have had the more Pleaſure in, as I have ſeen many of the Creatures in Ceylon, and find your Account accurate and juſt. Your late Relation of the Manner of the Rattle-ſnake's charming its Prey, gave me no leſs Satisfaction. Theſe may ſeem ſtrange to thoſe, who have no Part of the World, beſide that they were born in; but to the Traveller, they are in a Manner familiar. I have an Account to give you here, however, to which all that might appear moſt ſtrange in your Relations will ſeem natural, and ſuch a One as I know muſt ſtartle even you. But be aſſured, Sir, I ſhall aggravate no Circumſtance, but merely what myſelf and more than a Hundred others ſaw, and gazed at for two whole Days together.——And to cut ſhort my Preface, let me enter upon the Story.

Some Years ſince, the Commands of my Directors carrying me to Ceylon, to tranſact Affairs of no little Conſequence, I had an Apartment prepared for me on the Skirts of the principal Town, facing the Woods; at ſome Diſtance from my Window, there was a riſing Ground, on which ſtood three or four very large Palm Trees, that afforded me every Morning, as I lay in Bed, a delightful Proſpect. One Morning, as I was looking at theſe, I ſaw, as I thought, a large Arm of one of them in ſtrange Commotions, bending and twiſting about, tho' there was no Wind, and often ſtriking one End to the Earth, then raiſing it again, and loſing it among the Leaves. I was gazing at this with great Amazement, when a Ceyloneſe coming in, I begged him to look and wonder with me; he looked, Sir, and was much more amazed and terrified than I. In ſhort, a Paleneſs overſpread his whole Face, and he ſeemed almoſt ſinking to the Earth with Terror. He conjur'd me to bar up all my Doors; then told me, that what appeared an Arm of a Tree to me, was in Reality a Serpent of that monſtrous Size, diverting itſelf there with its various Commotions, and now and then darting down to the Earth for Prey. I ſoon found out the Truth of what he told me, and looking more nearly, ſaw it ſeize a ſmall Animal before me, and take it up into the Tree. Enquiring after this Miracle, the Ceyloneſe told me, that the Wonder was only that the Creature was ſo near us, for that it was a Serpent, but too well known on the Iſland; but that it uſually kept in the inland Parts and Woods, where it often dropped down from the Covert of a large Tree, and devoured a Traveller alive. A Relation ſo ſtrange as this, could never have gained Credit with me, but that I plainly ſaw before my Eyes a Creature from its Size, capable of doing more than was related. The Monſter, Sir, continued diverting himſelf, till we aſſembled a Body of twelve of us, to go on Horſeback, well arm'd to deſtroy him. We rode up toward the Place in a Body; but not to expoſe ourſelves to unneceſſary Dangers, we ſurrounded the Ground, and rode behind a cloſe Thicket, from whence we might unſeen level our Fire-Arms at him. It was by this Time the Heat of the Day; and when we arrived there, we found him ſo much larger than we had conceived, that we all wiſhed ourſelves ſafe at home again; and it was a long Time before any Body dared fire a Gun. We had now Time to obſerve the Creature, and believe me, Sir, all the Deſcriptions of Monſters of this Kind, hitherto given, are Trifles to the Truth of what we ſaw in him. The Ceyloneſe all agreed he was much larger than any they had ever ſeen; and ſuch a Mixture of Horror and of Beauty together, no Eye but that which ſaw it can conceive. The Creature, Sir, was more than as thick as a ſlender Man's Waiſt, yet ſeemed far from fat, and very long in Proportion to his Thickneſs; often hanging himſelf by the Tail from the higheſt Boughs of the Tree, and reaching the Ground with his Head. He was moſt ſurprizingly agile and nimble, and was now diverting himſelf in the Heat of the Day with a thouſand Gambols round the Branches of the Tree, and ſometimes would come down and twiſt his Tail round the Bottom of the Trunk, throwing himſelf to his whole Length all round it. In the midſt of one of theſe Gambols, we were ſurprized to ſee him get up in Haſte into the Tree; but the Cauſe ſoon appeared; a ſmall Animal of the Fox Kind, but not like our Engliſh Foxes, coming immediately after it, the Serpent had ſeen him coming, and took this Way to be prepared for him. He darted down upon the unwary Creature from the Tree, and ſuck'd him in a few Minutes, then lick'd his Chops with a broad double Tongue of a blackiſh Colour, and laid himſelf at his Eaſe at Length upon the Ground, but with his Tail ſtill twiſted round the Tree. In this Poſture I had Leiſure with Horror, yet with Admiration, to behold him. He was covered all over with Scales like thoſe of a Crocodile, all rigged up in the Middle; his Head was green, with a vaſt black Spot in the Middle, and yellow Streaks round the Jaws; he had a yellow Circle like a golden Collar round his Neck, and behind that, another great Spot of black. His Sides were of a duſky Olive Colour, and his Back more beautiful than can be well imagin'd; there ran down the Middle of it, Sir, a broad Chain of Black, curled and waved at the Edges; round this there runs all the Way a narrow One of Fleſh Colour, and on the Outſide of that a very broad One of a bright yellow, not ſtrait like a Ribbon, but waved and curled in various Inflections, and ſpotted all over at ſmall Diſtances, with great round and long Blotches of a perfect Blood Colour; his Head was very flat, but extremely broad, and his Eyes monſtrouſly large, and very bright and terrible.

Theſe, Sir, were his Colours as he lay ſtill, but when he moved about in the Sun, he was a thouſand Times more beautiful, the Colours, according to the ſeveral Shades of the Light, preſenting the Eye with a vaſt Variety of Mixtures, and in many Places looking like our changeable Colours in Silk.

We now all aimed our Pieces at him as he lay, and fired at his Head, all at the ſame Inſtant, but whether he accidentally moved juſt at that Time, or our Fears made us take bad Sight, or whatever elſe might be the Cauſe, we either miſſed him, or never hurt him; in ſhort, he took no Sort of Notice of it, and after a Council of War, we all agreed to make no farther Attempt upon him at that Time, but to go Home, and return with a ſtronger Party the next Day.

The Ceyloneſe ſeemed to know the Creature well, they call it Anacondo, and talk of eating its Fleſh when they caught it, as they had no ſmall Hopes of this; for, they ſay, when one of theſe Creatures chuſes a Tree for his Dwelling, he ſeldom quits it of a long Time. I detained my Company of Ceyloneſe to dine with me, and the Afternoon was ſpent in relating the amazing Things which one or other of the Company had ſeen of this Sort of Monſters; in ſhort, they told a thouſand Things that far outwent my Credulity; but I am to inform you, that what we ſaw the following Day, as much exceeded all they had told me, as what they told ſeemed to exceed Truth and Probability. It ſeems the conſtant Cuſtom of this Creature, to lay wait for its Prey, by hiding in the Boughs of large Trees, whence it unſuſpected drops upon the wretched Creature, which is ſeized before it ſees its Enemy.---- But the Inſtance we ſaw of this, I muſt relate to you at large.

The next Morning, Sir, we aſſembled to the Number of more than a Hundred, at the old Thicket, where we had the Pleaſure (if I dare call it ſo) to find our Enemy ſtill at his old Poſt; he ſeemed very fierce and very hungry this Morning, and we ſoon ſaw the amazing Effects of it. There are great Plenty of Tygers, you muſt know, Sir, in that Country; one of theſe, of a monſtrous Size, not lower than a common Heifer, as he went along, came at length under our Serpent's Tree; in a Moment we heard a dreadful Ruſtling in the Tree, and ſwift as Thought, the Serpent dropt upon him, ſeizing him acroſs the Back, a little below the Shoulders, with his horrible Mouth, and taking in a Piece of the Back, bigger than a Man's Head; the Creature roared with Agony, and to our unſpeakable Terror, was running with his Enemy towards us; his Courſe however was ſoon ſtopped, for the nimble Adverſary winding his Body three or four Times round the Body of his Prey, girted him ſo violently, that he ſoon fell down in Agony. The Moment the Serpent had fixed his Folds, he let go the Back of the Creature, and raiſing and twining round his Head, opened its horrid Mouth to its full Extent, and ſeized the whole Face of the Tyger in it, biting and grinding him in a moſt horrid Manner, and at once choaking him, and tearing him to Pieces. The Tyger reared up again on this, and Words are too poor to paint his ſeeming Agony; he wreathed and toſſed about, but all in vain, the Enemy where'er he went was with him, and his hollow roaring from within the Deſtroyer's Mouth, was dreadful beyond Expreſſion.

I was for firing on the Creature in this State, but they all declared againſt it; they told me, they knew his Cuſtoms ſo well, that they were now very ſure of him without any Trouble or Hazard, if they let him alone, but if they diſturbed him in this Condition, he would be ſo outragious, that ſeveral of our Lives would aſſuredly pay the Forfeit. They ſeemed to know ſo well what they were about, that I readily acquieſced. Several of us ſpent the whole Day, Sir, in obſerving this ſtrange Sight; and ſurely the Agonies of the Tyger were beyond all that can be conceived, and his Death more horrid than a thouſand other Deaths with all their Tortures put together.

The Tyger was a very ſtrong and fierce Creature, and tho' unable to hurt or get rid of its cruel Enemy, yet gave him a World of Trouble; a hundred Times would he rear up, and run a little Way, but ſoon fell down again, partly oppreſſed by the Weight, and partly by the Folds and wreathed Twiſts of the Serpent round his Body; but tho' he fell, he was far from being conquered, or at all manageable. After ſome Hours, he ſeemed much ſpent, and lay as if dead; and the Serpent, who had many Times girted himſelf violently round him, attempting to break his Bones, but in vain, now let go his Hold, and twiſting his Tail only round the Tyger's Neck, who was now in no Condition either to reſiſt, or eſcape, he made towards the Tree, dragging with ſome Pains the Victim after him. Now appeared the double Uſe of the Tree to the Creature: Nature, it ſeems, informs this Animal, that tho' it can conquer ſuch large Creatures as theſe, it can by no Means devour them as they are, ſince their Bodies are too thick for his Swallow, and he muſt therefore break their Bones, and reduce them to a ſoft Maſs, before he can manage them. This he uſually does, as we ſaw him attempt it on the Tyger, by girting his Body very firmly and hard round them, by this Means cruſhing them to Pieces; but when this Method will not take Place, he has Recourſe to the Tree, as we now had Opportunity to obſerve.

He dragged the Tyger, Sir, by Degrees after him to the Tree, and the Creature being now almoſt dead, and unable to ſtand, he ſeized him lightly a ſecond Time by the Back, and ſet him on his Legs againſt the Trunk of the Tree, then immediately winding his Body round both the Tyger and the Tree ſeveral Times, he girted both with all his Violence, till the Ribs and other Bones began to give way, and by repeated Attempts of this Kind, he broke all the Ribs almoſt one by one, this Creature's Bones being prodigiouſly tough, and each giving a loud Crack when it burſt; when he had managed all the Ribs thus, he next attempted the Legs, and broke them ſeverally in the ſame Manner, and each in four or five different Places; this took up many Hours, and the poor Creature all this while was living, and at every loud Crack of the Bones, gave a Howl, tho' not loud, yet piteous enough to pierce the cruelleſt Heart, and make even Man forget his natural Hatred to its Species, and pity its Miſery. After the Legs, the Snake attacked the Skull in the ſame Manner, but this proved ſo difficult a Taſk, that the Monſter, tired with his Fatigue, and ſeeing his Prey in no Condition of eſcaping, left him for the Night at the Foot of the Tree, and retired into it himſelf to reſt. This gave us Occaſion of going Home, and I muſt aſſure you, I could not ſleep for the poor Tyger, who was naturally ſo ſtrong and vigorous, that we left him ſtill alive, tho' broken and mangled in this miſerable Manner.

In the Morning I returned with ſeveral others to the Thicket, but as we rode up, we ſaw a ſtrange Change in the Face of Things; the Body of the Tyger, which was now no longer to be known as ſuch, but looked like a red Lump of ſhapeleſs Matter, was dragg'd to ſome Diſtance from the Tree, and ſhone all over as covered with Glue or Jelly; when we arriv'd we ſaw very plainly the Meaning of all this, the Snake was yet buſied about it. He had laid its Legs one by one cloſe to the Body, and was now placing the Head ſtrait before, and licking the Body (which now had no no remaining Shape of one, its Bones being all broken) and covering it with his Slaver, which was what gave it that ſhining Look, coating it over like a Jelly, and rendering it fit for ſwallowing. A great deal of Time was employed in this; but at length the Serpent having prepared it to his Mind, drew himſelf up before it, and ſeiz'd the Head, juſt as the Rattle-Snake in your Account did the Rat, and began to ſuck that, and afterwards the Body, down into his Throat; this was a Work of ſo much Time, that I left him ſtruggling at the Shoulders when I went home to Dinner, and by the Accounts of thoſe who ſtaid to watch him, it was Night before he got the Whole in.

The Morning following we all aſſembled for the laſt Time, and the very Women and Children followed us, aſſuring us, that as the Prey was gorged there was no Danger. I could by no Means conceive the Meaning of this 'til I came to the Place, but then I found it very true; the Serpent had ſo loaded his Belly, that he could neither fight nor run away. He attempted on our Approach, to climb the Tree, but in vain, and was ſoon knocked on the Head with Staves.

We meaſur'd him, and his Length was thirty three Feet four Inches. He was ſoon cut up, and I aſſure you, Sir, afforded a Fleſh whiter than Veal, and as they ſaid that eat of it, finer taſted than any Fleſh whatever.

I hope the curious Nature of this Account will plead Pardon for its Length, and am, with great Wiſhes of Succeſs to you,

Worthy SIR,
Your very humble Servant,
R. EDWYN.

PHILADELPHIA, February 18.

From Dover there is Advice, that Archibald Cunningham, and Alice, his Wife (lately mentioned in this Paper) were executed there on the 8th Inſtant, purſuant to their Sentence, for the barbarous Murder of Eleanor Gollohar.

Our River has been driving for ſome Days paſt, and is now ſo clear of Ice, that if the Weather continues moderate for a few Days, the Veſſels will fall down.

Capt. Reeve, of this Port, is in the River, from Jamaica. By Capt. Roney, who came Paſſenger with him, we have the following Depoſition:

Jamaica, ſſ. PATRICK Roney, John Holt, and Francis Welſh, Paſſengers on board the Sloop Diamond, of New-York, Nathaniel Lawrence Commander, who being ſeverally and duly ſworn, on the Holy Evangeliſts, depoſeth and ſaith, That they ſailed from Port-Royal, in the ſaid Sloop Diamond, on the Twenty-third Day of December, 1751. bound for Charles-Town, in South-Carolina: That on the ſecond Day of January following, being then off Cape-Nicholas, they ſaw a Sloop coming out of the Mole, ſteering cloſe by the Wind, which they took to be a Sloop bound to Boſton, that ſailed from Jamaica a ſhort Time before them: That the ſaid Sloop got the Wind of them, and then bearing down within Gunſhot of them, they hoiſted a French Pendant: The Sloop Diamond then put her Helm a Lee, and made Sail to the Northward, and was chaced by the other Sloop, who being in our Wake, fired a Shot at us. Capt. Lawrence ſhortened Sail, and the ſaid Sloop on coming up with us, ordered our Boat out immediately; but as we made no Diſpatch, they directly hoiſted their own Craft out, mann'd with twelve or fourteen Spaniards, and a Spaniſh Officer, who took Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Sloop Diamond, and carried her into Cape-Nicholas Mole: That upon our Sloop's being carried under the Stern of their Commodore, called The Victoria, Don Domingo Santia Commander, we were ſaluted with Drums, Trumpets, and loud Huzza's: That as ſoon as they came to an Anchor, the ſaid Sloop Diamond was boarded by the Commodore's Captain, and the Captain of the Sloop, that brought us into the ſaid Mole, whoſe Names they would not diſcover: That they immediately ordered Captain Lawrence's Cheſt to be opened, and overhaul'd the Governor's Let-paſs, and Cuſtom-houſe Clearances, and then overhaul'd the Caſh in the ſaid Cheſt, which we compute to about Three Thouſand Pounds, Jamaica Currency; at the Sight of which Money, the Spaniards ſhouted and danced for Joy: That they took an Account of the Number of the Bags, and the mark'd Contents, then put the Money into the ſame Cheſt again, and gave the Key of it to Capt. Lawrence, and then went immediately on board the aforeſaid Commodore, leaving a ſufficient Guard of Spaniards on board the ſaid Sloop Diamond. That they ſoon after returned again, and ordered the ſame Cheſt to be re-open'd and counted the looſe Money that was in it. That they then overhaul'd all the Cheſts in the Veſſel, and took into their Poſſeſſion all the Caſh in general that was found in her. That the Spaniſh Sailors rummaged and plundered the Steerage and Hold, ſtripping the Sailors of all they could poſſibly take from them: their Officers likewiſe behaved very little better than Pirates. That on the third of ſaid January, the Captain of the ſmall Sloop, and the Commodore's Lieutenant, whoſe Names we could not learn, came on board Captain Lawrence, and order'd all the Priſoners to go on board a Schooner which they had taken two Days before, out of Sight of Land, on her Voyage from Philadelphia to Jamaica. But Captain Lawrence inſiſting peremptorily, that he and his People would ſtay by his Sloop, and wait the Iſſue of a Trial, in order to proceed on his intended Voyage, if acquitted, the Spaniards left us for the preſent, but in the Morning the aforeſaid Spaniſh Officers compelled the above named Deponents, with five of Captain Lawrence's Sailors, to go on board the aforeſaid Schooner, leaving Captain Lawrence, his Mate, and four Sailors, on board his own Sloop. As ſoon as the aforeſaid Paſſengers and Sailors were on board ſaid Schooner, the Spaniards ſent their Craft on board for the Deponent, Patrick Roney, and carried him on board the ſaid Sloop Diamond: That they there examined him, from whence the ſaid Sloop Diamond came, and how the ſaid Spaniſh Money came on board her? That this Deponent told them, that the ſealed Bags, was Money taken in on Freight for South-Carolina; and thoſe unſealed, was Money for the Returns of the ſaid Sloop's Cargo from New York. That they then drew up a Writing on Paper, and deſired ſaid Deponent Patrick Roney, to ſign it: That on his refuſing to ſign the ſaid Writing, they hal'd the Commodore, who ordered the ſaid Deponent, Patrick Roney, on board him: That he was threatened very hard to make him ſign it: That he then told them he was ignorant of what they wrote, and apprehended it to be ſome Villainy, which they wanted to force him to ſign. That on his refuſing again to ſign it, the aforeſaid Commodore, Don Domingo Santia, took the ſaid Deponent, Patrick Roney, by the Ears, ſwearing he would cut them off, if he did not ſign the aforeſaid Paper. That after ſeveral Threatenings, of the like Kind, he was forced to ſign it, through Fright and Terror, tho' he did not underſtand one Word of the Contents. That he was then ordered on board ſaid Schooner, who weighed Anchor, and ſail'd for Jamaica, where we arrived the ſixth Inſtant.

 Juſt publiſhed, and ſold by the Printers hereof, JERMAN's ALMANACK, for the Year 1752.

MR. DOVE, English Professor at the Academy, finding his former house too little for the number of his boarders, has taken Rock-hall, which is situated in a wholsome air very near the Academy, and most commodiously adapted for the reception of young gentlemen at board, washing and lodging. The great advantages that children will receive from their living with a master, may easily appear from this consideration; That as they will be always under his inspection, he will have a better opportunity of discovering their different inclinations and humours, of forming their manners, and correcting their language and writing. Besides which, care will be taken, to instruct them morning, noon and night, in several useful books, by way of recreation, which are not taught in the public school.

N. B. Said Dove, if desired, will at leisure hours instruct any of his boarders in the Greek, Latin, or French Grammar, without any additional expence to their parents or friends.

JOSEPH SAUNDERS,

At his Store, on Rees Meredith's wharff,

PERSIA.

THE Troubles of this Empire are at laſt appeaſed; the preſent Schah, who is deſcended on the Mother's Side from the ancient Emperors, having invited the European Factors back to Iſpahan, with aſſurance that their Goods had been preſerved, they were agreeably ſurprized on their Arrival, to find every Thing as they had left it; and as ſoon as they had taken Poſſeſſion of their Houſes, the Schah's Guards were withdrawn. The Ruſſian Merchants are alſo preparing to ſend a large Quantity of rich Merchandize to Iſpahan.

Denmark. Tho' the Contract of the Conceſſion to Denmark, of the Liberty of two Ports on the Coaſt of Africa, was ſigned by the Emperor of Morocco, and every Thing ſettled with M. de Longueville, the Royal Ambaſſador, that Miniſter has been arreſted at Saffi, his Papers ſeized, and his Effects ſequeſter'd. Almoſt all his Majeſty's Subjects at that Port, and at Santa Croce, were arreſted at the ſame Time, and their Effects ſequeſter'd. The Emperor, it ſeems, has been made to believe, that the Danes, under Colour of eſtabliſhing their Commerce, deſigned to make themſelves Maſters of thoſe two Places.

France. The 8th Inſt. being the Eve of the Day fixed for the Marriage of 600 young Women, portioned all by the City of Paris, on Occaſion of the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy, the Ceremony of Betrothing them was performed in their reſpective Pariſhes, the Bells ringing all the while. The next Morning was ushered in by a general Diſcharge of the Cannon of the City and Baſtile; and at 9 a Clock the Bridegrooms and Brides repaired to their ſeveral Pariſh Churches, which were hung with Tapeſtry, and decorated with all the Magnificence uſually diſplayed on the greateſt Feſtivals, and the Marriage Ceremony was performed in the Preſence of an Alderman and two Church-wardens. The City, beſides portioning the Maidens, and giving Clothes to them and Bridegrooms, alſo provided them a Wedding-Dinner in their reſpective Pariſhes, to which they were carried in the ſame Coaches that brought them to Church, ſome of which belonged to Noblemen and Gentlemen, and others were found by the City. In the Pariſhes of St. Sulpice and St. Rock, the married Couples were waited on at Table by Princes and other Perſons of the higheſt Rank, who at parting made them handſome Preſents; and at ſix in the Evening they were carried in the ſame Coaches to their reſpective Habitations.

Vienna, Nov. 20. Our Negociations with Spain take a favourable Turn; that Court being ſenſible of the Juſtice of the Motives for making a King of the Romans, has explain'd itſelf on this Head in as favourable Terms as can be deſired. There was at firſt ſome Demurring about the great Power of an Empire for that ſhould hold Tuſcany, with the vaſt Dominions of the Houſe of Auſtria; but it is agreed that the Archduke Joſeph, when elected King of the Romans, ſhall renounce the Succeſſion to Tuſcany in favour of his Brother the Archduke Charles. A Treaty of Commerce between the Auſtrian Provinces and the Spaniſh Dominions is on the Tapis; and that for the Neutrality of Italy is concluded: The Affair of the Allodial Eſtate of Tuſcany, to which his Catholick Majeſty lays Claim, is alſo on the Point of being determined.

LONDON.

November 1. Two Gentlemen went to the ſeveral Goals in London, and in Middleſex, and Surrey, and diſcharged a great Number of Perſons confined for ſmall Debts, and others that lay for their Fees.

Nov. 7. Was ſeiz'd at an Inn, and carried to the Tower, about 400 Weight of bad Half-pence; 60 of theſe weigh about a Pound, and conſequently the Makers get 2s. 6d. for what is not worth above 9d.

Nov. 20. An Order paſſed the Houſe of C----ns that the Hon. Mr. Alex. Murray be again committed cloſe Priſoner to Newgate. Reſolved alſo, that he do receive the ſaid Sentence at the Bar of the Houſe, on his Knees; and ordered, that the Sergeant at Arms do take him into Cuſtody for that Purpoſe.

And a Complaint being made to the Houſe, of a printed Pamphlet, entituled, The Caſe of the Hon. Alex. Murray, Eſq; in an Appeal to the People of G. B. more particularly the Inhabitants of the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, the ſaid Pamphlet was brought up to the Table and read; when it was reſolved, nem. con. "That the ſaid Pamphlet is an impudent, malicious, "ſcandalous, and ſeditious Libel, falſely and moſt in"juriouſly reflecting upon, and aſperſing the Proceed"ings of this Houſe, and tending to create Miſap"prehenſions of the ſame in the People, to the Diſho"nour of the Houſe, and a Violation of their Privi"leges." Whereupon a Reſolution paſſed, to addreſs his Majeſty, to give Directions to the Attorney-General, to proſecute the Author, Printers and Publiſhers of the ſaid ſcandalous Libel, which was done accordingly. It is remarkable, that Mr. Murray, at the Cloſe of the laſt Seſſion, ſet ſo light by the Authority of the C----ns, as to go off without paying the Officers Fees.

Nov 25. The Houſe of Commons reſolved to Addreſs his Majeſty to iſſue his Royal Proclamation with a Reward for apprehending Alex. Murray, Eſq; after whom diligent Search had been made in Town.

Nov. 30. The Number of Land Forces for 1752 is to be 18887 effective Men; and the Number of Seamen 10,000, at 4l. per Month for 12 and 19 Days. The Eſtimates for the Land Forces were delivered into Parliament on the old Footing, but voted back, and new Eſtimates ordered agreeable to the late Act for correcting the Calendar——Only 15000 Land Forces was propoſed by the Minority, but on a Diviſion there were 180 againſt 43 for the larger Number.

The Number of Buſſes employ'd this Seaſon in the Herring Fiſhery off Yarmouth, and of the Laſts they caught, were, 250 Dutch Buſſes of 80 Tons, and 14 Men, caught at an Average 20 Laſts each, in all 5000 Laſts, which valued at 20 l. per Laſt, makes 100,000l.

120 Scheveling Boats of 30 Tons each, and from 6 to 8 Men in like Proportion, caught 900 Laſts making 18,000 l.

120 French Buſſes of above 100 Tons each, and from 14 to 25 Men, in like Proportion, caught 300 Laſts, amounting to 60,300 l.

It is averr'd, that in a Pariſh of the Suburbs of London, not containing above 560 Houſes, there are 8 or 900 Papiſts, a conſiderable Number of whom are Prieſts.

It is computed that no leſs than 15,000 Perſons are now unemployed in the Silk Manufacture of Spittlefields, occaſion'd by the long Mourning.

On the 25th paſt an Eruption of mount Veſuvius began; on the 26th the whole Cavity appeared in a Blaze; and next Day two Streams of liquid Fire deſcended in Torrents towards the Sea. The Virtuoſi, by Obſervations lately made, calculated the Duration of theſe Eruptions to a few Days.

October 14. Died the Rev. Philip Doddridge, D. D. of a Conſumption of the Lungs, at Lisbon; to which Place he had lately retired, by the Advice of his Phyſicians, for the Recovery of his Health.——He has been Miniſter of the Diſſenting Meeting in Northampton 22 Years,-----and had eſtabliſhed an Academy there, which he ſupported with ſuch Reputation, as brought Students to it from all Parts of the Kingdom.----He was a Man of a fine Genius, rich in the Stores of Learning, and of unexampled Activity and Diligence. His Piety was without Diſguiſe, his Love without Jealouſy, his Benevolence without Bounds.----His Candour was ſo uncommonly extenſive and unaffected, as to gain him the general Eſteem of the Clergy, and the particular Friendſhip of ſome very eminent Men.-----In the ſeveral Characters of a Friend, a Writer, a Preacher, a Tutor, he had few Superiors: In all united, he had no Equal.------His diſconſolate Widow (whoſe chief Dowry is, that ſhe inherits the Spirit of this excellent Man) is returning to England, to aſſwage the Griefs, and form the Minds of her amiable Offspring; and to forward thoſe Writings to the Preſs, which were deſigned for publick View.

[So far from the Magazine.]

Fontainbleau, October 24. The Earl of Albemarle, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from the King of Great-Britain, had a private Audience of the King, the 21ſt, in which he delivered to him a Letter of Congratulation from his Britannick Majeſty, upon the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy. The ſame Day his Excellency preſented to their Majeſties, M. de Ruvigny de Coſne, who is appointed to ſucceed Colonel York, as Secretary to the Embaſſy, who has taken Leave of the Court, and ſets out in a few Days for London, in order to receive his Inſtructions for the Poſt of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great-Britain to the States General.

Madrid, Nov. 2. We are aſſured an Edict of the ſame Kind with that lately publiſhed againſt the Hamburghers, will, in a few Days, be iſſued againſt the Danes, on Account of the Treaties ſubſiſting between them and the Emperor of Morocco.

Mr. Keene, the Britiſh Ambaſſador, has diſpatch'd an Expreſs with this News to London, in order to prevent any Prejudice to ſuch of the Merchants of Great-Britain as may have any Connection with the prohibited Traders.

Extract of a Letter from a Perſon of Diſtinction at Hamburgh, dated Nov. 16.

"Our laſt Letters from France bring a ſurprizing Piece of News: Who could have believed, that in a Nation whoſe Syſtem is paſſive Obedience, in the moſt extenſive Senſe, and who loves, that is ſaying too little, who adores its King, there ſhould be People capable of an Attempt like that which has actually been committed in the Apartment of the Duke of Burgundy, at a Time too when all France was employ'd in returning Thanks to Heaven for the Birth of that Prince ſo univerſally wiſh'd for, an unknown Hand put into the Duke's Cradle, a Packet which contained Matter, that had it not been quickly diſcovered, would have had a fatal Effect upon the Life of that Infant Prince: Some Paſquinades were likewiſe found there. Madam de Sauve, the Duke's Woman of the Bed-Chamber, being ſuſpected to be an Accomplice with the wicked Perſons who made this Attempt, was arreſted, and ſent to the Baſtile, where ſhe poiſoned herſelf: Her Maids have ſince been ſent to the ſame Priſon. The Publick are impatient to know what Diſcovery the Court will make in this Affair."

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated Nov. 18.

"His Britannick Majeſty perceiving the Neceſſity, from the unexpected Death of his Son, the late Prince of Wales, and his Son-in-Law, our late Stadtholder, of taking timely Meaſures againſt the Incertitude of Events, has wiſely foreſeen that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs might poſſibly before the young Stadtholder ſhould be Major, follow the Prince her Conſort; his Majeſty has therefore judged, that it would be highly the Intereſt of the Republick, as well as that of Great-Britain, its natural Ally, that Precautions ſhould be taken againſt an Event of that Nature; and that no better could be taken than that of nominating the Perſons who, in ſuch Caſe, ſhould ſucceed in the Tutelage of the young Stadtholder, and eſtabliſhing a good Council of Regency, with the Concurrence of the States General, and the States of the reſpective Provinces; ſo that ſuch Nomination ſhould, with all Expedition, paſs into a Law. To effect this ſalutary Deſign was ſent over a Miniſter of high Quality, and great Abilities, a ſort of Hercules, who went to give the Death Blow to that Hydra, which has conſtantly revived with the Blood of the Loveſtein Faction. The Coming of this Miniſter could not fail of being agreeable to her Royal Highneſs, and to the well-affected Regency, who muſt neceſſarily approve of the Plan he was charged with, as it manifeſtly tended to ſtrengthen the Bands of the Union which ſubſiſts between Great-Britain and the Republick. The Counſel of his Majeſty having been followed, an Ambaſſador will, 'tis expected, ſoon be ſent over, who ſhall be agreeable to the State, to conduct this Affair."

Though it was not expected that the Order and Regulation for Mourning for his late Serene Highneſs the Stadtholder, ſhould extend to be obſerved further than by thoſe who belong to the Court, and the Colleges of the Government reſiding in this Town; this Order has, nevertheleſs, been followed in the other Provinces, where the Colleges have likewiſe put themſelves into Mourning, exactly conformable to the Order; the Officers of the ſixty Companies of Burghers of Amſterdam, have all put themſelves and their Wives into Mourning; this Example has been followed in all the other Cities of Holland, where every Body is in black: Even the Peaſants in the Villages have imitated the Inhabitants of the Cities. This Mourning, which is more general than ever was known in Holland, where the People are averſe to the changing their Habits and Faſhions, is a Proof of the Affection of the whole Nation for the deceaſed Prince; notwithſtanding his Enemies have endeavoured to render him the Object of publick Hatred, by their common Diſcourſe, and envenom'd Satires and Paſquinades.

Hague, Nov. 23. The States General have created Prince William V. Hereditary Stadtholder, and Captain General

General of Brabant, Flanders, and of the Upper Quarter of Guelderland, and of the three Countries of Outre-Meuse, Wedde and Westwoldingerland, and conferred on him divers Rights, Privileges and Prerogatives, which are to be enjoy'd by the Princess Governante, during his Minority.

Extract of a Letter from a foreign Minister at Paris, dated November 30.

"The general Affairs of Europe have now a very favourable Aspect, particularly in Regard to the Court of Vienna and its Allies: That which relates to the Election of a King of the Romans, will, in all Probability, succeed to the Wish of his Britannick Majesty. There is now a Certainty of having the Electors of Bavaria and Saxony, on the Side of that Election, there is little or no Danger but those of Mentz and Treves will readily come into this Measure; and it is hoped that the Elector of Cologn may be regained.

The Matters of Dispute between Great-Britain and Spain, are in the fairest Way of being amicably accommodated: This last Court appears well enough inclined towards promoting the common Cause of preserving a proper Ballance of Power in Europe: Those of Naples and Parma will be influenced by this Crown. There are favourable Prognosticks in Respect to the King of Sardinia; and nothing need be apprehended in the North. So that, humanly speaking, if no Difference happen between France and England, the Tranquility of Europe is likely to be settled upon a solid Foundation.

Dusseldorp, December 6. Within these few Days past, several Barks, full of People, from Switzerland, passed by this City, upon the Rhine, in order to embark for Nova-Scotia, and other English Colonies in America.

LONDON.

Nov. 2. That prodigious Destruction which the Plague has made at Constantinople has entirely subdued even Turkish Obstinacy, in so much, that with the Consent of the Mufti, the Grand Vizir has consulted the most able Christian Physicians as to the Methods that are most expedient to be taken for delivering and preserving that Capitol from Infection; whereas formerly the Turks made it a Point of Religion to let the Plague take its Course.

Nov. 5. We learn from Toulon, that they have received Orders from the Court, to put all the Men of War laid up, or upon the Stocks in that Harbour, in a Condition to go to Sea as soon as possible, which has occasioned great Stir and Confusion.

Yesterday two Transports, with warlike Stores on board, for Nova-Scotia, fell down the River, in order to wait the joining of some others for the same Colony.

Nov. 9. On Thursday last Week, the Wife of James Piercy, of Old Brenford (a very honest industrious Man) was brought-to-bed of three Boys, who were Christen'd Matthew, Mark, and Luke; and are all now well, and likely to live.—It is remarkable, she was deliver'd that Day eleven Months of three Boys and one Girl; and so they have had seven Children in less than one Year.

Nov. 18. A Christian Renegado of Distinction, has proposed to the Grand Signior, the opening a Passage in Egypt, between the Mediterranean and the Red Sea, and has offered a very large Sum of Money for the Permission to undertake it, having, as he says, those who are ready to be at the necessary Expence.

It is reported, that, contrary to all Expectation, no Discovery can be made at Paris, concerning the Persons who threw a Packet of Papers into the Cradle of the young Heir Apparent. This Packet contain'd a Letter which was given to the King, but the Contents are not known, and three little Parcels, very neatly done up, the first containing Starch Powder, the second Sand, and the third Gun Powder. Some say that the Chamber Maid who had the Care of the Apartment had been formerly out of her Senses.

Nov. 25. 'Tis said several Men of War will soon be put into Commission, and that others are ordered to be got ready for the Sea with all Expedition.

On Wednesday Evening was buried in Portsmouth Church-Yard, the Body of Mr. John Chambers, of Smock-Alley, Fisherman. His Corpse was carried by six Great Grandsons, and his Pall supported by six Great Grand-daughters, and was followed by his Sons and Daughters, Grandsons and Grand-daughters, Great Grandsons and Great Grand-daughters, and their Children, two and two, amounting to seventy-two in Number. He wanted but six Months of One Hundred Years of Age, and retain'd his Senses to the last. He was called Admiral of the Fishermen; and on the Day of his Interment all the Fishermen belonging to Smock-Alley, had Jack, Ensign and Pendant hoisted half Mast high on board their respective Fishing-boats, as Mourning for the Loss of their worthy Admiral. He was a Man of general good Character, so that his Death is much lamented. All that attended his Funeral had Gloves, and most of the Children large Apples, which were found in his Chest. Such a Number of People as were to see the Funeral, have not been seen in Portsmouth many Years.

Nov. 26. We hear that the Forces of Nova-Stotia, will be considerably augmented early in the Spring.

As some of our Northern Colonies are taking Measures to defeat the old Custom of peopling them with Felons from England, it is apprehended the Legislature will at last be obliged to contrive some Way to keep and employ these Wretches at home: And as hanging has not hitherto proved a Means to prevent the Increase of Robberies, and no good Reason can be assigned why Men that are not fit to live at home, should be sent to infect our Colonies, there seems to be no other Alternative than Confinement and hard Labour here, that so they may be made some Way useful to the Society they have injured.

December 5. Advices from Port l'Orient and Rochelle, mention an Embarkation of 4000 Land Forces, made at those two Places for Pondicherry, for securing their Settlements in the East-Indies, and annoying one of their Neighbours if they see Occasion.

Newcastle, Nov. 9. On Thursday a Subscription was opened for carrying on the Whale Fishery in the Greenland Seas, Davis's Streights, &c. from this Port, when a large Sum was subscribed for that Purpose.

BOSTON, January 27.

Last Week, Ann Trotter and Mary Clary, were committed to Goal in this Town, by Mr. Justice Philips, for stealing Goods out of several Shops. They are both Irish Women, and came here some Months ago from Philadelphia; and it plainly appears that they have been very diligent in the Way of their Business, having collected together a great Variety of Shop-Goods, some of which have been owned, and the others remain in the Justice's Hands ready for Claimers. They dress'd in the Height of the Mode, which skreen'd 'em from Suspicion. and have approved themselves Adepts in their Profession, tho' they happened to be detected.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, by Capt. Gray.

"They say the Disputes between Us and the French, are agreed to, viz. That the French are to enjoy the Neutral Islands, with a Settlement at Anamabo, and that the English are to have the Limits they demand in North America; tho' I fear the Islanders will not like that very well."

Newport, Rhode-Island, Jan. 24. We hear from Hispaniola, that there has lately been a most severe Earthquake, and that the Town of Port of Prince, on that Island (which consisted of three or four Hundred Houses) is entirely demolished, and only three or four Houses left standing; and the Damage in many other Parts on the Island is very considerable.

NEW-YORK, February 17.

We hear, that Capt. Ross, in a Brig of this Port, which has been for some Time a missing Vessel, is taken by the Spaniards.

Mary Clark, the Woman who was tried, convicted, and received Sentence of Death, at the last Supreme Court, and was to have been executed on Friday last, has received his Majesty's most gracious Pardon, on Condition she leaves this Province before the second Day of July next.

PHILADELPHIA, February 25.

By Letters from London, Via Boston, there is Advice of the safe Arrival there of the White Oak, Capt. Lyon, and the Carolina, Capt. Mesnard, both from this Place.

Last Week William Kerr (lately mention'd in this Paper) was indicted and convicted at the Mayor's Court, of uttering Counterfeit Mill'd Pieces of Eight, knowing them to be such, for which he receiv'd Sentence as follows: To stand in the Pillory one Hour To-morrow, to have his Ear nail'd to the same, and the Part nail'd cut off: And on Saturday next to stand another Hour in the Pillory, and to be whipt Thirty-nine Lashes, at the Cart's Tail, round two Squares; and then to pay a Fine of Fifty Pounds.

Daniel Miller, Edward Drury, and Edward Plaisted, were also tried, and found guilty of different Felonies, and are all order'd to be whipt To-morrow.

A few Days ago Aaron Moore, an Indian Trader, came to Town, and gave a Deposition, the Purport of which is as follows: That on, or about, the 25th of October last, he was met with and robb'd in the Back Parts of this Province, near Allegheny, by Francis Fulton, Nehemiah Steen, Charles Poke and Andrew Steen; who pretended they had a Warrant, from a proper Authority, to seize and take away all the Skins, Goods, Horses, and other Effects, of his late Father, Benjamin Moore, deceased; and that they had Orders to carry him to Philadelphia, for which they would receive a Reward of Fifteen Pounds: That on his refusing to deliver his Goods, two of them, Francis Fulton, and Nehemiah Steen, threatened to split him down, and then took his Effects, to the Value of about 200 l. And that they then suffer'd him to depart from them; upon which he travelled into the inhabited Parts of the Province, in order to make his Complaint.

Thursday Night last our Watch was attack'd by a Parcel of Sailors, arm'd with Cutlasses and Bludgeons, who cut and bruised several of them in a dangerous Manner; five of the Sailors were taken up next Morning, and committed, and no doubt will receive a Punishment adequate to their daring Insolence, in disturbing an Institution so well calculated for the Benefit of the City.

Our Navigation is now entirely clear; and on Sunday last, in one Tide, there came up to Town twelve Sail of Sea Vessels.

TO be sold by publick vendue, on Thursday the fifth of March next, at the plantation where Henry Feagon, deceased, formerly dwelt, in Passyunk township, a parcel of fine steers, cows, horses, mares, colts, sheep and lambs, a quantity of cleaned wheat, carts, ploughs, a single horse chaise, a boat, with sundry utensils for husbandry, and sundry houshold goods. The sale to begin at ten a clock in the morning.

All persons indebted to the estate of the said Henry Feagon, deceased, are desired to make speedy payment, and those who have any demands against said estate, are desired to bring in their accounts, that they may be adjusted, by

To be LET,

A Large and commodious plantation, in the township of Passyunk, fronting the river Schuylkill, containing about 600 acres, well good drained and upland meadow, a large orchard, well set with the best of fruit trees, a handsome dwelling-house, and barn, the whole under good fence, about four miles from Philadelphia, and is very suitable to keep a dairy, the plantation will be suitable for one tenant, or two with a kitchen for each, the house is so convenient; to be entered upon the 25th of March next ensuing. To be SOLD,

AN Engliſh ſervant man, about 22 years old, has about three years and a half to ſerve, is a gardiner by trade, and underſtands the management of trees, and is alſo a good houſe and horſe ſervant. Enquire at the New-Printing-Office. ¶

To be Sold by JOHN WHITE,

At the ſign of the Mortar and Dove, in the houſe in Second-ſtreet, out of which Doctor Thomas Bond lately remov'd,

DRUGS and Medicines of all kinds. All perſons that have occaſion of thoſe things, may depend on being ſupply'd with drugs that are genuine and freſh, and with medicines made exactly according to the regulations of the New London Diſpenſatory, prepar'd by Corbyn and Clutton, the beſt Chymiſts in London; and at the loweſt rates they can reaſonably expect them to be ſold for. ¶

NOtice is hereby given to all perſons that intend to convey themſelves, goods, wares or merchandize, from Philadelphia to New-York, or from New-York to Philadelphia: That there will be a ſtage-boat, well fitted, and kept by Patrick Cowan, living in Burlington, that will attend every Tueſday in every week, at the Crooked Billet Wharff, in Philadelphia, for the ſame purpoſe, and will proceed the ſame day up to Burlington, wind and weather permitting. And on Wedneſday morning a ſtage waggon, with a good arming, kept by Fretwell Wright, at the Blue Anchor, in Burlington, and John Predmore, at Cramberry, and James Wilſon, at Amboy Ferry; will proceed to Obadiah Ayrs's, Inn-keeper at Amboy Ferry; where good entertainment for man and horſe is, and will be kept. And on Thurſday a ſtage paſſage-boat, with a commodious cabbin, fitted with a tea-table, and ſundry other conveniencies, kept by Matthias Iſelſtine, will be ready to receive the paſſengers or goods, and proceed directly to New-York, and give her attendance at Whitehall Battery. If Paſſengers are ready at the places on ſtage days, 'tis believ'd they will go ſooner from Philadelphia to New-York, by 24 or 30 hours, than by any other way that has been made uſe of by ſtage, the boat from Philadelphia to Burlington ſeldom being above four hours on her paſſage, and often but two or three hours. All perſons on or near the road, that have buſineſs, may have it done with due care and attendance. The price of paſſengers or goods, that ſhall come to Burlington, will be no more per mile than from Bordentown. On Sundays or Monday in any week, paſſengers trading up and down the river, or any other manner, whoſe waggon hire ſhall amount to Sixteen Shillings or upwards, ſhall, upon the firſt notice, have a waggon, and be tranſported to the ſtage boat, which will be ready to receive them at the landing, and is the moſt handy and convenient of any thereabouts, there being a good wharff to ſtep into the boat. The ſame for the firſt time, will begin to attend at the Crooked Billet on Tueſday, the 13th day of Auguſt, 1751, and the waggon will proceed the day following. Further, if the ice, or any thing elſe ſhould at any time prevent the paſſage boat from going from Burlington to Philadelphia, the ſtage waggon will, if requir'd, proceed from Burlington to Cooper's Ferry. FRETWELL WRIGHT, JOHN PREDMORE, JAMES WILSON, PATRICK COWAN.

TO be ſold, by publick vendue, on the ſecond of March next, by the executrix of Robert Hubbs, deceaſed, the plantation where he lived, in Glouceſter county, about four miles from Cooper's Ferry, containing about 200 acres of good land, well watter'd and timber'd, with about 15 acres of meadow, and more may be made, a good orchard, dwelling-houſe, barn, and other outhouſes; alſo cows, horſes, and other utenſils for farming: Said place lies about one mile from a landing, where attendance, and reaſonable credit will be given, giving ſecurity, if required, by LUCY HUBBS.

ALl perſons who have any demands againſt the eſtate of SAMUEL HASELL, Eſq; late of Philadelphia, deceaſed, are deſired to bring in their accounts, that they may be adjuſted and paid; and all indebted to the ſaid eſtate are requeſted to make ſpeedy payment, to prevent trouble.
